

Treasuring Childhood

FILM & LECTURE SERIES

Presented by Tucson Waldorf School

HOW TO HAVE DEVICES NOT BE DIVISIVE FOR OUR FAMILY

Not Anti Screen but Pro Connection to Nature and People

Kim John Payne

Author of Simplicity Parenting is coming to Tucson for a lecture & mini workshop.

- How to maintain loving limits, warm, firm and calm discipline, and strong family connections in a world where increasingly “screens are supreme.”
- How to build focus, grit, and good judgment so that our kids do not become overwhelmed with media-driven images but can shape their own self esteem, hopes, and dreams.
- How to encourage respect when negative images of adults pervade pop culture. Fitting in with friends. “Won’t my kids be disadvantaged if I limit screen media?”
- Aloneness vs. Loneliness. Helping kids know the difference.
- The alluring world of no boundaries that screen use develops and how this makes discipline and guidance difficult.
- Virtuous vs. Virtual. Building real and enduring relationships with people who will “be there” for you when times get tough.

Tucson Waldorf School

Sunday, March 31st
9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Free and Open to the Public with RSVP
520.529.1032 www.TucsonWaldorf.org
TreasuringChildhood@TucsonWaldorf.org

Sea of Glass
Center for the Arts

332 E 7th St, Tucson, AZ. 85705

This event is intended for adults only.